

Endpoint: application (Application Requests API) [internal]

Application requests requires special permissions and are built for the external site AUTHv4. The API is internal and requires special permissions to use as it links AUTHv4 and the API together. Without this API, there won't be any configuration abilities between the sites.